

ESPECIAL EMPLOYMENT CENTRE

Company whose main purpose is the performance of productive and remunerated work

70% of the staff are people with disabilities
Social and private initiative

Public and private financing
Regulated by specific legislation

Leap into regular employment

ORDINARY COMPANY

Is a commercial or industrial organisation operating in the private sector for the purpose of generating economic benefits

Companies with more than 50 employees, 2% people with disabilities

Alternative measures: contracting of services in a special employment centre, Donations, collaboration agreements

EMPLOYMENT IN SPAIN

Special employment centre vs ordinary company

